PROPERTY DEVELOPMENT

Connect with life

Bell Mews & Queens Court Apartments is a new landmark development by Aldenham Residential, consisting of 1 and 2 bedroom apartments and 2, 3 and 4 bedroom houses plus one 2 bedroom bungalow nestled within the historic and tranquil Hertfordshire village of Codicote.

Position perfect

Hertfordshire is a fascinating place to call home and this charming and secure Codicote development offers convenient access to local amenities and the keys to unlocking stunning surroundings, right on your doorstep.

The pretty village of Codicote is located in a valley in the Chiltern Hills four miles north-west of the vibrant town of Welwyn Garden City with its excellent transport links with trains running into three Central London Stations, Kings Cross, Moorgate and St Pancras International connecting the European traveller to directly to Eurostar. Alternatively a little closer to home, Knebworth Station (just 3.5 miles away) offers you a direct line into Kings Cross.

By road the M25 and M1 are easily accessible either North to the Midlands or South to London just 30 miles away. As are three major Airports, the closest being London Luton just 8 miles away, London Heathrow 39 miles and London Stanstead at 46 miles.

A warm and homely offering is on the menu at the Goat Inn locally, or visit neighbouring Welwyn Garden City with ample restaurants and pubs that reflects the areas enviable fusion of past and present.

A fine balance

With plentiful options for eating out, entertainment and shopping nearby, yet surrounded by countryside and open green space, Bell Mews & Queens Court offer a truly enviable quality of living and the best of both worlds.

Welwyn Garden City is home to a thriving local community with a local arts campus, a thriving cinema and a theatre with festivals and live music. If shopping in one of the many attractive, independent shops has worked up an appetite, a variety of quality, contemporary restaurants and pubs are on offer.

For outdoor adventures, nearby favourites include a nine-mile former train line reclaimed as picturesque cycle path and the peaceful, bluebell-laden Heartwood Forest.

Open the door

This quintessentially English countryside is well stocked with rolling hills, a myriad of castles and country walks. On the doorstep and slightly further away is Stevenage, one of south-east England's most rapidly developing and dynamic towns.

Stevenage is home to the large and picturesque Fairlands Valley Park with boating lake, a popular indoor market, a multiplex cinema and the Lamex stadium. Nearby is home to renowned Knebworth House, boasting 28 acres of formal gardens and maze.

A short car journey leads to the popular Whipsnade Zoo tourist attraction. Back home in Codicote, the M25 can be reached by car in under 20 minutes.

Schools

There are a number of impressive schools both State and Independent in close proximity and easily accessed from Codicote, these include:

Codicote C of E Primary School - Nursery, Reception, Years 1-6

Oaklands Primary School Years 1-6
