ENCHANTED PLACE

A SPECIAL PLACE FOR A SPECIAL DAY

With arrow-slit windows, sweeping staircases and four-poster bedrooms, Boringdon Hall has character charm and heritage. The 16th century country manor has a rich history steeped in occasion and its tucked-away location makes Boringdon a wedding bolthole you'll want to boast about.

From the intimate Rose Room with its double aspect lattice windows, to the Great Hall with its impressive fireplace, the hotel's interiors provide the perfect backdrop to your celebrations.

OUR SERVICE

“The most worth-while thing is to try to put happiness into the lives of others.”

Robert Baden-Powell

From your initial show-around to the moment you say ‘I-do’ our on-site wedding co-ordinator will be with you every step of the way.

Working in collaboration with a variety of trusted companies we will plan your day to your exact specifications, from stationary and decorations to photographers. Your day will be as you imagined and more, with no nasty surprises...

YOUR CEREMONY

Jane Austen, Emma

For an intimate ceremony the Grenville Suite – complete with wood burner and lattice windows – comfortably seats 60 guests. For an open-air ceremony for up to 100 guests consider exchanging vows in our rose covered outdoor arbour surrounded by family, friends and green lawns. For a grander affair marry in our light and elegant Parker Suite with its arched ceiling and exposed beams where up to 110 guests can be seated comfortably.

Or to really make yourself feel at home consider exclusive use. As the only guests you and your nearest and dearest will have the privacy to enjoy the manor house, including the Great Hall, Gallery Restaurant and our 40 bedrooms, long into the night; there’s no need to worry about upsetting the neighbours, as there are none...

EAT, DRINK...

*“One cannot think well, love well, sleep well,
if one has not dined well.”*

Virginia Woolf, A Room of One's Own

Our kitchen specialises in producing dishes made with local fresh and seasonal produce. From elegant canapés to a 7-course tasting menu, traditional afternoon tea to an informal hog roast your wedding coordinator together with our head chef will help you design the culinary compliment to your day.

When it comes to selecting your liquid refreshments we don't leave anything to chance. Welcome drinks, toasting tipples, after dinner aperitifs and late evening cocktails – the options are endless. We'll guide and advise until you are happy and your guests are impressed.

... AND BE MERRY

"Hear no evil, speak no evil, and you won't be invited to cocktail parties."

Oscar Wilde

The Elizabethan Suite with its own private bar and dance floor is the place to twirl, laugh, smile and relax with friends and family. The casement lattice windows and chandeliers transform the Suite into your private party palace. For a larger gathering of family and friends our front lawn is the perfect spot for a marquee or vintage bell tent.

If you've booked exclusive use however, the Great Hall is available for your evening soiree. Chandeliers, a private bar, wood paneling and impressive fireplace, together with ceiling height windows and gallery seating means there truly is nowhere better to dance the night away.

ROOMS

“You know you’re in love when you can’t fall asleep because reality is finally better than your dreams.”

Theodor Seuss Geisel

For you a four-poster room awaits, provided with our compliments. Located within the original part of the Elizabethan manor house our four-poster rooms have lattice windows, luxury linen and the choice of a freestanding bath.

For your guests 39 other rooms are available; from our featured four-poster rooms, our comfortable courtyard rooms located in the building’s newest wing, and our spacious family rooms accommodating up to 5 guests and contemporary furnishings, Boringdon’s accommodation will leave your nearest and dearest feeling refreshed, inspired and dreaming of your magical day.

Not forgetting our suites for an added indulgence: The Executive Suite with its private decked area and heated hot tub and the Royal Suite with a private lounge, intimate dining area, secluded terrace with hot tub and marble bathroom with twin shower. What better way to spend your wedding night?
