WELCOME TO BOWOOD

Bowood House, one of England's finest Georgian Houses, is set in 2,000 acres of immaculate Grade I listed 'Capability' Brown parkland and offers a stunning backdrop to any event.

Perfectly situated in the heart of Wiltshire with a dedicated event space, Bowood can host a range of large and small events; as well as TV and Film productions.

HOSTING YOUR EVENT

Bowood has been hosting events for over 50 years and can accommodate large or small events including:

- Sporting Events
- Live Music and Festivals
 - Food Festivals
- Country and Craft Shows
- Garden and Flower Shows
- Classic Car and Supercar Shows
- Corporate Events

EVENT SPACE

Bowood's main event space can accommodate a capacity of 10,000 people (c. 30 acres) and has plentiful event parking for 3,500 cars (c. 25 acres).

The event space is divided into three main areas, offering flexibility to suit all types and scale of events.

Other areas of the Estate and Bowood Lake are available for event use, depending on the proposed activities. The Lake is almost 1 mile long and varies in depth from a few inches up to 20ft at its deepest.

ACCESS

Bowood lies just 1 hr 30 minutes drive from London, and 45 minutes from Bath and Bristol. There are multiple entry and exit points using estate roads, with easy access from major roads (M4, A4, A342 and A3012), which are clearly signposted.

Access and egress arrangements have catered for events up to 10,000 people and can be flexed to suit the specific requirements of new events.

TV, FILM & PHOTOGRAPHY LOCATION

Bowood House, the gardens and grounds, together with the wider Estate, provide many interesting and unique features for filming. Bowood has previously hosted period dramas, modern films, factual documentaries, TV shows and fashion photo shoots.

Most recently Bowood has been used for several popular dramas, including Poldark and The Forsytes as well as the first Downton Abbey movie.
