HOTELS

Burnham Beeches Hotel

Nestled in the historic hunting grounds of the royals, a stone's throw from Windsor, Burnham Beeches Hotel is so much more than just an 80-bedroom hotel.

It's a tube ride from the city for a breath of fresh air; a peaceful night's sleep before the hustle of Heathrow; a central hub to meet colleagues; a grand backdrop for a celebration or simply a welcome place to relax for the weekend.

Discover our Georgian hidden gem in the Buckinghamshire countryside and enjoy a little stately service.

The natural place to stay

Having recently undergone an elegant and creative transformation across public areas, bedrooms, health club and more, Burnham Beeches Hotel is now realised as the first of a new brand concept; Imerso Hotels.
