OUR WINE
COLLECTION

“Good company, good wine,
good welcome, can make good people.”

William Shakespeare, Henry IV

NEVER TO BE SEEN AGAIN...

Occasionally we're lucky enough to acquire small parcels, or even single bottles, of hard to find, exceptional wine. They're too good not to have on our list, but unfortunately when they're completely sold, they won't make an appearance again.

| W192. Radio-Coteau Savoy Chardonnay, Anderson Valley, USA 2020
Although lesser known for Chardonnay, Anderson Valley's cool climate allows for slow grape ripening, creating complexity and elegance in the finished wine, much akin to the Cortons and Montrachets of France. Stone fruits, white flowers, and a touch of citrus on the nose, with a warm, toasty finish that marries the flavours together. | 130 |
| W120. Cervaro della Sala Chardonnay/Grechetto, Umbria, Italy 2021
A blend of Chardonnay with a splash of Grechetto; slight skin contact and 5 months fermentation in barriques. Cervaro feels full-bodied with a touch of oak, allowing the fruit's elegance to shine through. Chamomile and struck matches, followed by citrus fruits and nut butter. Savoury, yet fresh and lively. A wine to ponder over an afternoon. | 145 |
| W157. Oremus Petracs Dry Furmint, Tokaji, Hungary 2018
Tokaji is famed for its rich, sweet dessert wines, with Furmint as the main grape. Oremus has chosen a single vineyard, Petracs, to grow 60-year-old vines through traditional methods in a dry style, producing a wine that has crystalline minerality, with flavours of green apple and white flowers. New French and Hungarian oak are used to ferment and mature the wine, with lees stirring for 8 months, lending spice notes and a full-bodied finish. | 150 |
| R271. La Bracesca Bramasole Syrah, Cortona, Italy 2011
2011 saw cool and dry weather during the summer months, with a subsequent rise of temperature from early August, leading to very ripe fruits. Aged for 18 months in new and once used French oak, with completed malolactic fermentation. Rich flavours of spices and tobacco, with a long finish of dark fruits and pure cacao. Perfect pair with game meat. | 105 |
| R275. Radio-Coteau Savoy Pinot Noir, Anderson Valley, USA 2017
Pinot Noir at its finest; decadent fruit notes of black cherry, mulberry, and raspberry are bolstered by structured tannins and brisk acidity. Red fruits evolve into earthy baking spices with an echo of vanilla. Radio-Coteau uses biodynamic practices and whole cluster fermentation to ensure the most vibrant, finessed expression. | 125 |
| R261. La Bracesca Bramasole Syrah, Cortona, Italy 2009 (1.5L Magnum)
2009 initially saw oscillating spells of rain and mild dry periods, with high temperatures in summer, creating slow developing but full flavoured grapes. Aged for 16 months in small new French oak barrels. Flavours of dark fruits, tobacco, and typical Syrah characteristics of liquorice and black pepper. Aging in magnum slows aging, providing a hint of freshness. | 230 |
| R280. Antinori Tignanello, Tuscany, Italy 2020
One of the great wines that changed how Chianti and Italian wine is made today. Tig consists predominantly of Sangiovese with some Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc in the blend; aged in new and once used French and Hungarian oak for 15 months with malolactic fermentation. Forthcoming with red fruits, violets, and roses; white pepper and dark roasted coffee finish on the palate. Undoubtedly rich with smooth, supple tannins. | 250 |
