Burnham Beeches

If Jane Austen did weddings

Period wedding venue without the drama

Congratulations on your engagement and welcome to Burnham Beeches.

Within these pages we hope to give you a flavour of how we can make your day as individual as you two are.

Of course, a visit will help you really get to know us and experience the character of Burnham Beeches.

We'd love to show you around, so consider this

an open invitation

Whether you are planning a great big traditional event, a low-key coupling or a classically cultural celebration like a sangeet or a simple blessing, our space provides a glorious setting.

A little bit about us...

Our 18th century Georgian Manor House is an architectural jewel in the Buckinghamshire countryside

An immaculate, grand setting to make your vows and confirm your love for each other - we'd be privileged to be part of your ceremony.

Built in 1727 and originally used by royal hunting parties from nearby Windsor, the magnificent house still enjoys ten acres of private grounds, within a protected nature reserve. Our outdoor pavilion is a truly special place to say 'I do'. The indoor spaces are equally romantic, from intimate suites for you and your closest guests to an entire take-over of Burnham Beeches for a wedding with all the trimmings!

Whatever option reflects your style, you and your guests will be taken care of by our experienced and friendly hospitality team throughout your time with us.

Your wedding is a momentous occasion.

We know you want every little detail to be perfect on the day.

We understand that you & your guests have high expectations.

We're here to exceed them

So much more than weddings

Why settle for just one spectacular day at Burnham Beeches?

We'd be delighted to host your rehearsal dinner, bridal shower or hen party. (Well behaved Stags are welcome, but separately of course, if you want to uphold tradition!)

You can hire our elegant Tea Room or any of our event suites and indulge in a quintessential afternoon tea, or enjoy fine dining in our Oak Restaurant.

Tea Room

During your time with us, our leisure facilities are at your disposal. Book you and your partner in for a pre or post wedding day treatment in the relaxing Soul Spa Treatment Rooms and feel your absolute best self. It's also the perfect place for a bridesmaids' briefing.

Whatever you're planning as you approach the big day, come and share it with us. By the time you take your vows, we'll be old friends. And we're happy to accommodate photography throughout your visits, so you have a wonderful collection of memories in your wedding album.

A place to prepare

Bridal Suite

Soothe the pre-wedding nerves or just chill out in our luxury bridal suite.

Spend the night before (or as long as you like), in our sumptuous suite, designed to be a calm oasis for making preparations.

Floor to ceiling period windows let the light flood in - perfect for hair and make-up and also for capturing some prenuptial, candid shots. There's a roomy lounge for the wedding posse, plenty of space for the champagne and nibbles, and we've even installed a wedding dress hook. Practicality as well as comfort!

Best of all, feel the excitement build as you watch your guests arrive with views to the front of the hotel. Have a sneak peek at their outfits and savour every moment as your unforgettable day unfolds.

It's also a grand finale to the day, when you both return after the celebrations, kick off your shoes and sink into the soft four poster bed and re-live the party. Our hospitality elves will have transformed your room into a welcoming haven for two.

In the morning you may decide to take your first 'married' breakfast together in your room or join your overnight guests for breakfast in the Brasserie.

Watch your guests arrive with views to the front of the hotel and savour every moment as your unforgettable day unfolds.

*It's your day
and your rules*

Sky or Suite?

Wedding Pavillion

What kind of ceremony have you imagined? Is it outdoors, on manicured lawns, the sound of clinking glasses and chatter, mingling with the breeze? Then consider our brand new Wedding Pavilion, positioned on the front lawn to take advantage of the Georgian architecture that will make your wedding pictures pop.

While some grand venues can steal the limelight, our cool coloured facade is a frame for your photos: you and your guests are the stars, Burnham Beeches is simply the supporting cast.

Our hospitality team can do most things but we can't guarantee the British weather. But we can arrange an equally perfect plan B if the forecast isn't co-operating.

Windsor Suite

Our Windsor Suite is a brilliant blank canvas that can be dressed to fulfil your brief. It has acres of natural light, wooden floors, contemporary neutral interiors and elegant features that create a backdrop for your style. Banish any thoughts of 'conference room', no one in the 18th century planned to hold meetings here!

This suite is ideal for weddings in cooler months or for the drink's reception. The Chiltern Bar, right next door, ensures that the atmosphere flows - and also the drinks tray.

Food of love

What's a celebration without sharing a feast?

Your guests have come to witness you both making your lifelong commitment to each other, but we know they are expecting to be fed well too!

The royal hunting parties that used to frequent Burnham Beeches would have demanded refreshments and we've set our standards accordingly. The choice of dining is entirely your choice but our talented chefs can prepare canapés, a buffet, a formal, seated meal and even supper rolls, to keep up the energy on the dance floor.

Where possible, our ingredients are locally sourced and freshly made for your celebration. We offer an extensive menu of delightful dishes but we can also accommodate individual tastes or dietary needs.

Reception drinks are a traditional welcome for your guests, helping them to get to know one another as they mingle. We can serve drinks on the lawn or in the Chiltern Bar and, while tradition dictates Champagne or Prosecco (which are included in our packages), we're happy to get shaking the cocktails, fill some beer buckets or provide your favourite tipple, just let us know.

Our Windsor Suite is transformed into your personal wedding breakfast dining room for your celebration. Plus, our couples are invited to a food and wine tasting ahead of their event, so you know exactly what you and your guests will be enjoying on the day.

Dance the night away

As your festivities get underway, there'll no doubt be plans for entertainment

The dance floor is usually a popular place to start but we also have great spaces for additional revelry, even for outdoor games if you like to get competitive.

You can speak to our experienced Wedding Co-ordinator at the hotel about any outside artists and we'll make sure they are looked after.

We also have a trusted list of suppliers, from florists, fanciful cake makers and confetti suppliers to magicians, DJs and interior stylists – our address book is open to you.

We hate to bring up the end of your perfect day, but at some point you'll have to go to bed. And so will your guests. There are taxi services we can put you in touch with but with 78 comfortable rooms and 4 luxurious suites, why not invite them to stay the night and reunite for breakfast to exchange stories? We'd certainly love to hear all about it.

Bring your day to life

It just takes a phone call to start realising your dream wedding

Speak to our dedicated wedding co-ordinator
or a member of our hospitality team,
and share your aspirations with them.

We'll do our very best to make it an exceptional and enduring memory for everyone, but especially for you two.

We can't wait to meet you
