Glenapp Castle Tea list

Assam

Hailing from the remote north-east Indian area with which it shares its name. Home to the world's largest single tea-growing belt, it's here that monsoon rains temper the tea gardens from June to September and balmy temperatures encourage the distinct flavour of the area's famed blends.

Full bodied and malty with hints of honey

English Breakfast

A quintessentially British blend loved all over the world, English Breakfast tea supposedly owes its popularity and its name to Queen Victoria. The monarch is said to have fallen in love with the rich and reviving blend of strong black tea leaves during a stay at Balmoral Castle in Scotland.

A robust cup with a malty aroma and a lovely citrusy edge

Darjeeling

Taking its name from the area in which it is grown, this luxurious blend is shaped by bright sunshine, cool, rainy nights and soft mountain breezes. Characterised by a floral aroma and the unique, delicate flavour of muscatel, Newby's fine Darjeeling proffers a refreshing lift at any time of day. A favourite at afternoon tea and a treat first thing in the morning.

A layered blend with a lovely floral finish

Jasmine Pearls

Hand-rolled green tea leaves infused with fragrant jasmine blossom make our Jasmine Pearls tea sweet and floral. This delicate premium blend is from our loose leaf tea pouch range.

Sweet and delicate with a lasting floral finish

Hunan Green

Only the most fragrant and fresh tea leaves go into making our exquisite Hunan Green. With a lingering sweetness it is a gentle, enjoyable treat for any time of day.

Subtle fragrances with a sweet and delicate finish

Earl Grey.

A celebrated black tea with a comforting citrus twist. Newby's regal blend mixes premium black tea leaves with pure bergamot oil for a smooth and perfectly balanced finish. Offering a citrus aroma and the sweet taste of bergamot orange.

Fragrant citrus aroma and smooth finish

Fruity Berries

A rich tisane combining the rich flavours of raspberry, blackcurrant, blackberry and cherry, Summer Berries is an invigoratingly fruity blend. Offset by sweet and sour hibiscus, raisin and vanilla notes for a perfectly balanced finish.

A deep red cup with the aroma of fruit and berries and a sweet taste

Peppermint

Hand Picked Peppermint Tea, This Freshly grown peppermint tisane has a nice spicy aroma and a strong minty taste to it with a nice refreshing finish. Perfect for after dinner.

Spicy aroma with a cool minty taste and a refreshing clean finish

Lapsang Souchong

Our smoky Lapsang Souchong tea is a dark chocolate-coloured black tea with a sweet aroma and layered taste. This premium blend comes in an easy-seal pouch.
