

The Spirit of Scotland: A Glenapp Burns Celebration

*Friday 22nd & Saturday 23rd
January 2027*

Celebrate the Beloved Bard in True Scottish Splendour

Robert Burns, Scotland's most beloved poet, is celebrated around the world for his timeless verses, heartfelt songs, and enduring love of his homeland. From Auld Lang Syne to My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose, his words capture the very spirit of Scotland – warmth, wit and romance.

Each January, Scots gather to honour his legacy with fine food, whisky, poetry and music in true Burns Night tradition, and this year, we welcome you to do so here at Glenapp Castle. Nestled in the heart of Ayrshire, where Burns himself was born and raised, there is no place more fitting to raise a glass and recite a verse.

An Unforgettable Scottish House Party Like No Other

Our two-night house party promises a truly delightful weekend of Scottish celebration, including a Grand Burns Banquet. Enjoy the finest Bladnoch whisky, bagpipes, the Address to the Haggis, a traditional Scottish dinner, and, to top it all off, an authentic Scottish ceilidh – this will be a Burns celebration to remember!

During your stay, as a nod to Burns' membership in the prestigious Royal Company of Archers, you are invited to test your aim in a thrilling game of archery on the Castle Lawns.

Moreover, you may wish to tour the stunning sites of Burns Country using one of our Glenapp guest cars, with our compliments. Perhaps pay a visit to Burns Cottage, his childhood home, as well as the wonderful Burns Museum, to delve deeper into his fascinating life.

Additionally, exclusive to guests of Glenapp Castle only, enjoy a Burns-inspired whisky tour and tasting at the renowned Bladnoch Distillery, the perfect toast to Scotland's national bard.

What's Included:

- Two-nights accommodation in a luxurious Castle Bedroom Suite
- Full Scottish breakfast served each morning – haggis optional!
- Exclusive invitation to our Grand Burns Banquet, including:
 - A delicious Bladnoch whisky cocktail
 - The famous Address to the Haggis, with a Bladnoch dram
 - Live bagpipes
 - A four-course traditional Scottish dinner, paired with exquisite wines
 - Scottish Ceilidh dancing, with callers to teach you the dances
- Thrilling archery lesson on the Castle Lawns
- Complimentary use of Glenapp guest cars to tour the Ayrshire countryside
- Complimentary use of our tennis court, croquet lawn, boules, mountain & electric bikes and 110 acres of gardens and estate
- Complimentary morning newspaper
- Complimentary WiFi

Moments Worth Sharing

“Glenapp’s inaugural Burns Supper. One word – BRILLIANT.”

No one knew each other, we all enjoyed the most fabulous dinner and wines (all included), by the dessert course, we all knew each other.

After dinner, the Ceilidh – a trio of musicians had arrived, one a caller who taught you the steps, and bang! The party started. So much fun, laughter, and new friends. Before you knew it, midnight had come and gone.

What a fantastic, memorable evening – we are definitely coming back next year; it will be a highlight on our calendar.”

Mr & Mrs Park, January 2026

Rooms & Rates

Our rates vary depending on which style of room or suite you would like to book. Each of our bedroom suites are individually and luxuriously styled with a unique combination of fabrics, furnishings, antiques, and art. All the rooms at Glenapp are spacious and there are a variety of suites enjoying magnificent views over woodland and the surrounding seas.

The following rates are per room for two guests, for the two-night house party:

- Garden View Suite: £995.00
- Grand Garden View Suite: £1,245.00
- Grand Sea View Suite: £1,495.00
- Junior Suite: £1,695.00
- Master Suite with Sea View: £1,995.00
- 2-Bedroom / 4 Guest Castle Penthouse Suite:
£3,450.00
- 4-Bedroom / 8 Guest Castle Penthouse Suite:
£4,450.00

CONTACT US

To request further information or to confirm your booking, please contact the Glenapp team:

Email info@glenappcastle.com

Telephone +44 (0)1465 831212

