LION QUAYS
Spa Resort

A wide-angle photograph of a garden at dusk. The scene is filled with warm, golden light from string lights draped across the trees and from a central fountain. The garden features a large tree with yellowing leaves in the foreground, a stone wall in the background, and various plants and flowers, including purple lavender. A paved path leads through the garden towards a wooden building on the right.

Let your dream come true

It was all so perfect

My partner and I enjoyed our wedding day at the Lion Quays.

We could not have asked for a more beautiful venue, or experience.

Our wedding planners, Sophie and Jessica went above and beyond.

Sophie was fantastic on the day, and is a credit to Lion Quays.

Nothing was too much trouble, my wife and I have some fantastic memories to look back on.

Lion Quays will always be a place that we will return.

Is there a room where we get ready?

Our spacious bedrooms are ideal for Bride and Bridesmaids to share the night before with ample space to dress and prepare for that all important reveal to Dad, que photo opportunities, galore! The Groom and Best Man also have the option of staying ensuring a timely arrival at the ceremony.

Can we supply our own DJ?

Absolutely, this is entirely possible. We will require certification of PAT testing of their equipment if over one year old, or a receipt if under this age. In addition it is necessary for the act to hold Public Liability Cover, which we will also require a copy of six weeks prior to your wedding.

What if any of my party has a dietary need?

Our kitchen brigade are well versed in catering to all allergies and dietary requests, you will find we can provide a special menu entirely focused to this need. Please ensure you raise these needs with your wedding planner as early as possible to ensure that we can thoughtfully cater to their requirements.

What time should I have the ceremony?

We recommend that you aim to secure a 1 pm ceremony time as this allows plenty of time for you and your guests to prepare and arrive whilst allowing plenty of time for the arrival drinks, receiving line, breakfast and speeches, with an aim of your evening festivities getting underway from 7 pm.

Who will be there on the day?

Following on from your planning appointments, we will arrange for you to meet with the Function Manager who will be taking care of you on the day itself a week or so ahead of the big day. They will greet you at your room and take you to the Registrar appointment, staying until the last guest has left happy.

Who walks down the aisle first?

Of course, this is entirely your decision, however traditionally it would be your Page boys, Flower girls leading, followed closely by Bridesmaids, Maid of Honour, and the Bride with her Father or significant other to 'give her away'. Modern tastes allow this to differ to cater to your ideal line-up.

Your questions, answered...

Can we extend our celebrations?

Absolutely! We would be pleased to advise you on options to stay additional nights, use our spa, have dinner or arrange golf and other activities — please speak to your wedding co-ordinator for ideas.

How many guests do we have to cater for the evening buffet?

You should cater for all additional evening guests to avoid food running out. Bespoke weddings all evening guests must be catered for.

Can we bring our own decorations?

This won't be a problem at all. We do offer a selection of items you will be more than welcome to use, however should you prefer to, we can put you in contact with local wedding suppliers, or you may appoint your own to suit.

What time can my suppliers access the function rooms?

Where possible, you may be able to bring items to the function room, the night prior. Your wedding co-ordinator will be able to advise on this shortly before your wedding date.

Do you offer the option of a bespoke menu?

Yes of course! It's such an important part of the celebrations and our Head Chef would be pleased to look at personalised menus for you.
