

SELECTION OF TEA - 3

THE OLD BELL BLEND

Organic tea, specially blended for the hotel, hints of burnt caramel and toffee, delicious with or without milk.

BOLD BREAKFAST

Bold and flavoursome breakfast blend combining high quality Assam and Ceylon leaf tea.

HANDSOME EARL GREY

Delicate but fragrant blend of high-quality black tea and natural bergamot oil, with a sprinkle of colourful cornflower petals.

DARJEELING FIRST FLUSH

Known as the Champagne of tea, it is hand-picked during mid-March to early April, in the foothills of the Himalayas, a delicate and slightly floral cup.

MASALA CHAI

Inspired by the popular drink served by chai wallahs on the streets of India, a blend of black tea and aromatic warming spices of cinnamon, cardamom, ginger and cloves.

SENGHA GREEN

A smooth, sweet and satisfying green tea delivers a soft, delicate flavour, notes of leafy greens and lychee.

DO NOT DISTURB

Hints of chamomile and honeysuckle, this tea is best drunk in the evening to help you wind down.

ORANGE SPICE

Comforting, organic blend of rooibos, honeybush, sweet orange peel and warming spices.

PEPPERMINT CLEANSE

Pure and natural peppermint leaves.

RASPBERRY LEMONADE

Apple, hibiscus, lemongrass and coconut.

Our History

Late 1100's: Walter Hanks, operated a mill below The Old Bell Hotel on the River Avon. Also in this time, the first attempt at flight by the monk Eilmers, flying just over 200 yards before falling!

1220: Abbot Loring erected a hostelry at The Old Bell for visiting dignitaries to Malmesbury Abbey, important and powerful seat of learning back then.

1841: Mark Pleydell Hanks, ancestor of Whit Hanks, was recorded in the census as being resident at Abbey House. Nowadays owned by Whim Hospitality.

1985: Whit Hanks acquires property in Dripping Springs, Texas.

2008: Started Camp Lucy development.

2012: Whim Hospitality was co-founded by Whit and Kim Hanks.

June 2021: Grand reopening of The Old Bell Hotel in Malmesbury, oldest hotel in England.

2022 - 2023: Complete refurbishment of the hotel, including all 34 bedrooms, the Tyger Bar – the outdoor indoor heated tiki bar, the Coffee Bar, and our Garden Room – a big conference room to accommodate weddings, special celebrations or local community gatherings.

May 2023: Acquisition of the Townhouses suites.

Summer 2023: Awarded with Best National Hotel by Muddy Stilettos, as well as officially recognised 4 star hotel and 2 rosettes Restaurant.

2024: Our journey continues...
