Grand Cru Chateaux Selection

A Grand Cru is a French wine designation for the highest-quality wines from a specific, highly-regarded vineyard or "cru" known for its exceptional terroir and consistent quality.

1999 Chateau Priere-Lichine, Margaux, Grand Cru Classe (6 Bottles)	185.00
Purchased in late 1951 by Alexis Lichine, this was a very run down vineyard to which were added small plots from neighbouring Chateaux like Vivens, Catenac and Palmer, adding a much higher status to the Chateau. The wines are matured for 19 months, well coloured and full bodied. Plummy, rich with blackcurrant fruit supported by supple tannins and a touch of vanilla-oak.
2010 Chateau Durfort - Vivens Margaux, 2eme Grand Cru Classe 1855 (6 Bottles)	220.00
Dufort -Vivens has become one of the best value cru classee wines for Margaux since 1990s. The wines are matured for 18/20 months with up to one third of new oak. High tannin structure, luxurious oak, red charming fruits notes, rich and impressive.
2003 Chateau Grand-Puy-Lacoste, Pauillac, Grand Cru Classee 1855 (3 Bottles)	250.00
Under the guidance of Francois-Xavier Borie this chateau is going from strength to strength. 12 months of old oak and 6 months of new oak maturation. Deep red colour, complex cassis, spicy and vanilla bouquet, lots of fruit, length and finesse.
2010 Chateau Batailley, Pauillac, Grand Cru Classe (6 Bottles)	265.00
Château Batailley is a historic 15th-century estate in Bordeaux's Pauillac appellation, named for Hundred Years War battles fought on its land, and is a 5th Growth classification winery. It is known for its classic Pauillac style, dominated by Cabernet Sauvignon. this wine showcases flavours of cassis, tobacco and woody notes with intense rich red fruit with ripe tannins.
2006 Chateau Leoville Barton, Saint Julien, Cru Classe (6 Bottles)	385.00
A chateau with a very long history since 1826, this wine is produced by Anthony Barton. Matured for 24 months this wine is a wine of great finesse, deep, dark and rich, cedarwood complexity, cassis and vanilla.
2005 Chateau Rauzan-Segla, Margaux, Grand Cru (3 Bottles)	400.00
An ever improving Chateau since the 1980s with investment and strict selection of Grand vin, bought by Chanel in 1994, key personnel was brought in from First Growth to improve this Chateau, to make Rauzan-Segla one of the best performing Bordeaux for Second Growth. 20 months matured in 50% new oak deep and dark with powerful tannic construction intense.
