We endeavor to use as many locally sourced meat and fresh produce suppliers as we can to support local business and ensure all of our food is as fresh as possible.

We no longer add service charge to our bills, please feel free to leave a tip if you are pleased with the service you have received today.

Allergens: Please inform us at the time of ordering about any dietary requirements or allergies. Due to the layout and operation of our kitchens and the fact that food is freshly made by hand, we do not have specific allergen-free zones, and it is not possible to fully guarantee the separation of allergens. If you would like ingredient information about the food and drink served, please ask the staff, who will be happy to help. GF - gluten-free, GFO - gluten-free option, VGO - vegan option
