On The Day

Menus are subject to change if the Management/Head Chef deem food items not to be of sufficient quality for our guests.

In some instances your internal venue may change dependent upon booked numbers. Any changes will only take place with the interest of the customer with the management always looking to offer you the best location

We have to comply with various licensing and statutory regulations when running the Hotel. You agree to assist us in complying with such regulations, rules and requirements and details are a fair representation of what will be on offer, but certain details and dishes may change without prior notice.

Gratuities are at the guest's discretion.

The Hotel accepts no responsibility for CDs, gifts, cards, keepsakes or any other items brought into the Hotel by you or your guests. We would suggest a member of the party take responsibility for the collection and safe keeping of these items.

Photography and video may be taken by the Hotel at some events.

Complaints

We would politely request that if you are at any point dissatisfied with your visit to the Hotel that you make a senior member of staff aware on the evening. Management will then supply you with an e-mail address to contact our Guest Relations Department, who will respond within 72 hours on most occasions. Complaints that have not been brought to the attention of a Manager during your visit will lead to a delay in investigation, and in many cases, will not be considered. The same applies for social media complaints and letters received by the Hotel.

Liability

The Hotel accepts no liability for loss or damage to property owned by or in the custody of the client/guest while that property is on the premises of the Hotel. The client is advised to arrange appropriate insurance cover.

Fireworks are not permitted on Hotel grounds.

The Hotel accepts no responsibility for death, bodily injury or disease arising from any cause whatsoever to persons visiting the premises, except for liability arising due to negligence of the owners, its servants, employees or responsibility.

The client hereby undertakes to indemnify the Hotel for the damage to the premises or contents whether or not owned by the Hotel caused by the activities of any person attending the function.

The client shall ensure that the client's guests observe a high standard of behaviour, including children, to avoid embarrassing situations. The Hotel reserves the right to expel any guest behaving in a manner which it regards as detrimental to the standing of the Hotel or likely to cause inconvenience or annoyance to other Hotel guests or local residents. In the event of the Hotel expelling a guest it shall not be obliged to pay compensation to the guest or client.

The client agrees to pay the Hotel for any food, beverages or other services not provided for in this contract but made available upon request of the client unless the Hotel has been specifically instructed in writing to obtain cash settlements direct from the persons receiving such services.

The Hotel shall not be liable for any breech of this contract because of strikes, labour disputes, accidents or other causes beyond their control.

In the event of the foregoing occurring the Hotel shall offer the client an alternative venue if it is available, failing which the Hotel will terminate the contract and refund the deposit. The Hotel's obligation to compensate the client will be limited to the obligation of repaying the deposit.
